

Hansen Journey Log

Log Entry Date: August 20, 2008

What the guys are saying

"Thank you for taking the time to talk, for the first time I feel like someone really knows me."

"Miss. Rene, I want to show you my journal."

"I want to know everything Mr. Joe! How do you build a house? What kind of music do you like? Do you ever dance with Miss. Rene?"

We love how God is extending our family!

Michael, Veassna, Krumm, Jonathan, Hock Lee, Rene, Paht, Tia, Pov, Vanny, David, Joe, Caleb, Logan, Kosal, Sam

Recent Highlights

Michael and the brand-new tuk-tuk!

Someone recently donated money to purchase a tuk-tuk (a taxi carriage pulled by a moto). This is a great opportunity to teach the guys how to start and run a small business! This month Joe has been teaching Michael how to drive.

A counselor in the area has a heart for our home and offered to donate counseling time to the guys!

School started last week – Yay! We made it through the crazy summer and are soooo ready for more structure. 😊

As for us

This summer was so intense we often felt like we were losing our minds but were too busy to even care! Now that we are a bit settled we are trying to establish a more reasonable schedule (and get caught up on sleep 😊).

Thanks for journeying with us,

Joe and Rene